

Didactical Elements

Text

Simple Text Content with

- Lists

and links (<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hyperlink>) and tables

	Column title 1	Column title 2	Column title 3
Row title 1	text	text	text
Row title 2	text	text	text

Image

Images or charts with text descriptions

Figure 1: Image description text

Quizzes and self tests

Single-Choice, Multiple-Choice, True-False... You name it.

HTML is a markup language. Yes No

Another statement Yes No

For answers see p. xyz

What's a hyperlink?

(Choose one)

A very fast connection between two objects

A reference to data that the user can follow

For answers see p. xyz

Which of these are markup languages?

(Choose multiple)

HTML

Markdown

Javascript

CSS

For answers see p. xyz

_____ is text with hyperlinks.

Every word with an _____ will have to be _____ by a student

For answers see p. xyz

Open Questions

A set of open questions, the student can fill out, download and send as a text afterwards.

Please describe what hyperlinks can be used for?

What is HTML used for in web design?

Please send your answers to your lecturer.

Sorting Tasks

You can use sorting tasks with words and images. You can even define hotspots on an image to indicate where an area of interest is which a student should drag an image or word onto.

Sort words to text

Sort the words to the correct sentences.

1. The inventor of the hyperlink was _____

2. Microsoft was founded by -----

- a) Tim Berners Lee
- b) Bill Gates

For answers see p. xyz

Sort text to elements

HTML Elements	Markup Languages

For answers see p. xyz

- a) Hyperlinks
- b) Headings
- c) Markdown
- d) Latex

Hotspots

Which of these persons invented the world wide web?

For answers see p. xyz

You can find additional content in the digital version of this learning unit.

Answers

...